

Today We Welcome Guest Speaker, James Evanson

James will share his story about the impact Kentucky Refugee Ministries has had on his life, and the life of his family.

Together, we share this meaningful day!

Green Team Tips

Share Your Abundance!

The Food Pantry @ 213 East Maple welcomes homegrown produce. If you do not have space for a garden or raised beds, get a few big containers, and add soil, plants and keep well-watered...then share!

♥ A little bit can mean a lot!

Please help us know you better by completing the requested information on the friendship pads that are in each pew!

- Great for Visitors
- Great for Member Updates

Connection Builds Community!

Center for Lay Ministries

Food Pantry NEEDS:

- Plastic grocery bags
- Cans of tuna
- Single or family servings of Mac & Cheese
- Deliver donations to 213 East Maple Street
- Come to the side door and knock!

Thank you!!

Please remember to recycle your church bulletins before leaving church!

- Recycle basket next to the elevator
- Baskets on the coat rack to recycle batteries, printer ink and toner cartridges, and corks

Thank you!

Prayer Blanket Ministry

We have a beautiful collection of handmade blankets that have been blessed, and are available to be given as gifts to someone who may need one.
